Information Sheet

The Business is a tree service company, began operating in 1989 and has built a profitable and reputable business. It specializes in trimming trees & hedges, removing trees, hedges and stumps, bolting and cabling to prolong the lifespan of splitting trees and transporting brush to the landfill for commercial and residential customers.

The Company has both commercial and residential customers within a 50-mile radius of Bismarck-Mandan. Half of the Company's business is from repeat customers and have commercial contracts. A listing of all bids from the owners' previous years of operation are include in the sale of the business. The Company leases a 75' x 150' fenced lot to park equipment

The Company has five full-time employees, who work 10 hour days, four days a week with Fridays off. Employees are paid weekly and do not receive benefits.

Hours of operation are 8:00am—6:30 p.m. Monday—Thursday.

Key success factors for the Business include:

- Efficient, timely and honest customer service, ensuring repeat customers.
- Diligence to leave an area cleaner than when workers arrived.
- Cost-effective service while still guaranteeing high quality work.
- Excellent safety record.
- Well-maintained equipment for high performance.
- Business-band two-way radios allow owner and staff to communicate job location and logistics.
- Well-trained and presentable staff.
- Recommended by several local businesses.

Upon sale of the Business, the current owners are willing to transition the Company to new ownership for a negotiable period of time.
